A FEW copies of this paper have been printed for private distribution. See also the articles entitled "Some of the Descendants of William Hilton," and "The Dover Settlement and the Hiltons," published by me in the New-England Historical and Genealogical Register for April, 1877 (xxxi. 179), and January 1882 (xxxvi. 40), and "Notes and Queries concerning the Hassam and Hilton Families," Boston, David Clapp & Son, 1880, privately printed.

THE HILTON FAMILY.

WILLIAM¹ HILTON came from London to Plymouth, in New England, in the "Fortune," Nov. 11, 1621.* The "Fortune" sailed for England, on her return, within a month thereafter, and the following letter which he sent by her to his cousin in England, was first printed in Capt. John Smith's "New Englands Trials," edition of 1622.

Wm Hilton

Louing cousin, at our arriall at New Plimmoth in New England, we found all our friends and planters in good health, though they were left sicke and weake with very small meanes, the Indians round about vs peaceable and friendly, the country very pleasant and temperate, yeelding naturally of it self great store of fruites, as vines of diuers sorts in great abundance; there is likewise walnuts, chesnuts, small nuts and plums, with much varietie of flowers, rootes, and herbs, no lesse pleasant then wholesome and profitable: no place hath more goose-berries and straw-berries, nor better. Timber of all sorts you haue in England, doth couer the Land, that affoords beasts of diuers sorts, and great flocks of Turbies, Quailles Pigeons and Patri ges: many great lakes abounding with fish, fowle, Beuers and Otters. The sea affoords vs as great plenty of all excellent sorts of sea-fish, as the riuers and Iles doth varietie of wilde fowle of most usefull sorts. Mines we find to our thinking, but neither the goodnesse nor qualitie we know. Better grain cannot be then the Indian corne, if we will plant it vpon as good ground as a man need desire. We are all free-holders, the rent day doth not trouble vs, and all those good blessings we haue, of which and what we list in their seasons for tukiing. Our companie are for most part very religious honest people; the word of God sincere ly taught vs every Sabbath: so that I know not any thing a contented mind can here want. I desire your friendly care to send my wife and children to me, where I wish all the friends I haue in England, and so I rest

Your louing kinsman William Hilton.

His wife and two children followed in the "Anne," July or August, 1623. In the allotments of land in 1623, there was granted to him one acre lying "to the sea, eastward," and to his wife and two children three acres butting "against the swampe & reed-ponde."* He was of Plymouth in 1624, for the friends of Joel Lyford, who came over in the beginning of that year, and who was driven from the colony soon after with some of his adherents, affirm "that the first occasion of the quarrel with them was the baptizing of Mr. Hilton's child, who was not joined to the church at Plymouth."† As his name does not appear among those present at the division of cattle in 1627,‡ he must have removed from Plymouth before that date. His son William, who came to Plymouth in the "Anne" in July or August 1623, states that "in a little tyme following" his arrival, they settled themselves on the Piscataqua River with Mr. Edward Hilton and that they were the first English planters there.§

He was one of the witnesses, July 7, 1631, to the livery of seizin to his brother Edward Hilton of the lands embraced in the Squamscott, or Hilton's Patent,¶ which bears date March 12, 1629 [i. 1629-30]. The following letter to the Worshipful Mr. John Winthrop, the younger, at Agawam, is printed with the Winthrop papers in the Collections of the Massachusetts Historical Society.

June 2, 1633, Capt. Walter Neale, as Governor of the plantation of Sir Ferdinando Gorges and Capt. John Mason, granted Capt. Thomas Canmoeke a pareel of land upon the east side of Piscataqua River, "where William Hilton lately planted corne At a court held at Exeter, 4th 10th mo. 1639, it was ordered th "Will. Hilton and goodm. Smart" were to have lots on the oth side of the river.† At Exeter, 3d 12th mo. 1640, it was agreed

"That M^r William Hilton is to enjoy those marshes in Oyster River which formerly he had possession of and still are in his possession, and other marsh which M^r Gibbins doth wrongfully detain from him with the rest of those marshes which formerly he hath made use of so far as th may be for the public good of this plantation: And so much of the land adjoining to them as shall be thought convenient by the neighborho of Oyster River, which are belonging to this body."‡

* Loose sheet in unbound or stitched MS. in office of Clerk of Courts, York Co. It is also recorded with York Deeds, Lib. i. 3d part, p. 2, and on the following page th is a confirmation, dated May 1, 1634, by Gorges and Mason.

† N. H. Provincial Papers, i. p. 138.

‡ N. H. Provincial Papers, i. p. 141. For his action of trespass on the case against Ambrose Gibbons for detaining this marsh, see Rockingham Deeds, Lib. i. fol. 7. Ibid, fol. is the following entry: "Georg Walton Sumons an acco debt at Suite of W^m Hilton ord ed that ex to be granted presnt for 3^l damag & 16^s Costs: Provided that if Mr Tomkins norhampton have pd 10^l to m^r Rich: Hilton in Norwich then the sd W^m Hilton." The date is either 1642 or 1643, the entry being rather indefinite. When I first examined the record more than twenty years ago, I was in great doubt as to the letters interlined ab the caret in the word Norwich, and I gave expression to these doubts in a footnote to the article entitled "Some of the Descendants of William Hilton" before mentioned. A careful re-examination made recently by me renders it now certain that the letters so int lined are "th" and that Norwich is meant.

The case was referred to in that article in the hope that it might afford a clue for furth investigations. That hope has now been justified, as from certain researches since made Mr. Henry F. Waters it appears that at Wotton-under-Edge, Gloucestershire, Englan there is a record of the baptism of "Rich. s. of Rich. Hilton of Northwich in Cheshire ag 1 year & coming out of New England, ye. 16 Aug. 1636."

In Mass. Archives, xxxix. 70-73, is the case of Edward Colcord vs. Nathaniel Boulter, the following agreement:

"I Nathaniell Boulter doe p'mise to deliver unto m^r Willi: Hilton of Dover halfe a thousand of pipestaves Marcheantable in May next 1645 Nathaniell Boulter.

Witness William ffieild:.

These p'sents Witnesseth that I Willi: Hilton doe assigne over this bill to Edward Colcord: by mee Will: Hilton."

Among the papers in this case is "The deposico of Willm ffurthur aged about ffor yeares who Sworne Saith That Some Certayne yeares Since being in the company of Edwa Colcord & Willm Hilton who then lived att York I did then heare willm Hilton Say a

Dear my dear friend
 I have been thinking of you very much lately
 and wondering how you are getting on
 I hope you are well and happy
 I have been very busy lately
 but I have managed to find some time
 to write you a few lines
 I hope you will find them interesting
 I have been thinking of you very much lately
 and wondering how you are getting on
 I hope you are well and happy
 I have been very busy lately
 but I have managed to find some time
 to write you a few lines
 I hope you will find them interesting

I am writing to remind to get your note. I have seen it because I suppose it must be for my friend in his last letter to you. I have not yet seen it and I am not sure whether it is possible to help him in any way. I am sure I know of him as a very kind and good man.

He was made freeman, May 19, 1642, and had a grant of twenty acres of land in Dover in that year.* At a General Court held at Boston, Sept. 27, 1642,

"It is ordered, that the associates of Pascataque shall have power to try any cause under 20^l, though no other bee sent to them. Willi: Hilton, Willi: Walden, Edwa: Colcote have authority to end differences under 20sh^d. M^r Francis Williams is ioyned an associate at Pascataq."†

He was deputy from Dover to the General Court at Boston, 1644. He conveyed to Francis Matthews, of Oyster River, 88 acres of land in Oyster River, granted him by the town of Dover, and two parcels of marsh land adjoining.‡ In this deed he styles himself of Dover.

About this time he removed to Kittery Point, as Frances White, wife of Richard White, in a deposition§ taken Feb. 27, 1687-8, says "that about forty six years past shee leived in a house at Kittery poynt that stood then between the house that was m^r: Morgans & the house that M^r: Greenland afterward leived in: which house above sayd the depo^t husband William Hilton did hyer of Maior Nicholas shapligh." She must have been a second wife of William Hilton, as she was "adged seauenty years or thereabouts" at the time when this deposition was taken, and could not therefore have been the wife who, with two children, came in the "Anne" to Plymouth in 1623. At a court held at Gorgeana, June 27, 1648, "It is ordered this Court that m^r. William Hilton being licensed for to keep the ordnary at the mouth of the River of Pascataqua, and that none other shall keep any private ordnary ther, nor to sell Wine beare nor Licker upon any p^tence what so ever under ii gallons by retaile:"|| "It is Ordered this Court that hee that keeps the ordnary is for to keepe a ferry and to have to the great Iland¶ for one vi d if more iii d a peese to Strawbury banck for one xii d if more viii d p man to Dover or Kitterry xviii d for one if more xii d a man." At a court held at Gorgeana Oct. 16, 1649,

"It is Ordered this court: That ther shall be ahieway cut from the head of Rogers Cove, unto the head of Bray bote harber & so to the little marsh ner Unto Cap^t Champanownes howse & so to m^r William Hiltons the In habitanee of Gorgeana: to cut: Unto a Cove neare Unto Jo^a Andrews: and the Inhabitanee of Pascataquacke to cut from W^m Hiltons to acknowledge that hee had assigned to Edward Colcord a Bill for pipe staves which Nathaniel Boulter did ow to ye sd willm Hilton wch was about five hundred according to my best remembrance. Deposed the first of the 5 mo: 1659."

† Records of Mass., iii. p. 31. Also recorded Dover Town Records, Lib. i. fol. 20.

‡ This deed was recorded with Rockingham Deeds, Lib. i. fol. 95, 29th 1 mo. 1653. Its date seems to be 7 July, 1644, altered to 1641, or blotted so as to look like 1641. The same deed is also found in Dover Town Records, where its date is 7 July, 1645.

John Treworthie in a deposition† taken Oct. 25, 1650, testifies "that the cellar w^{ch} is at Pascataway now standing neere the house w^{ch} W^m Hilton now lives in, did not any way belong to the land w^{ch} was bought by me for my Grandfather m^r Alexander Shapleigh." At a court held at Gorgeana, Oct. 15, 1650,

"ffor as much as the house at the Rivers mouth wher m^r Shapleighs ffather first built and m^r William Hilton now dwelleth: In regard it was first house ther bylt, and m^r Shapleigh Intendeth to build and Indarge it: and for farder considerations, it is thought fit it should from time to time, be for a house of Entertayment or Ordinary wth this p^{viso} that the Tenant bee such a one as the Inhabitants shall approve of."[‡]

June 7, 1651, Mr. Nicholas Shapleigh, of Kittery, leased to Mr. Hugh Gunison, for the term of twenty-one years from that date, "All his Edifices Land & accomodations and Priveledges: Att the poynt wher m^r William Hilton now Dwelleth containning five Hundred ackers."[§]

He thereupon removed to York, and when the Massachusetts Commissioners arrived there to receive the submission of the inhabitants, Nov. 22, 1652, he was one of the fifty persons who acknowledged themselves subject to the Government of the Massachusetts Bay, and took the oath of freeman. At a town meeting held in York about the 8th of December, 1652,

"It is ordered that m^r William Hilton is to have the use of the ferry the Term of one & twenty years. Lying betwixt the house where he liveth, and The Town of York: and he is daly to attend the sd Ferry wth Cannoos sufficient for the safe transportation both of Strangers & Town men if occasion requireth. If time & tydes be Seasonable, he is to p^{ass} persons over to & from the Stuge Island: If not he is & must prov a Canoo to Lye ready at the point of Land on his own Side the River, up all Such occasions to transport people without danger. In Considerat whereof the s^d William Hilton is to have allowed him two pence a pe for Every strangers, & four pence apeace for Every beast, or horse who he swimmeth over, or that are Swom by any Strangers themselves, he his servants being ready to attend, & one penny a time for Every Town man he fetcheth or carrieth over: unless the s^d Inhabitant go over in his own Canoo, which Liberty remaines to Every Towns-man, being made use to Exempt him or them from the payment of any ferriage."^{||}

He was one of the Selectmen of York in 1652, 1653 and 1654 and had grants of land from the town, one July 4, 1653, a another June 4, 1654, of twenty acres "next adjoining unto

2. WILLIAM² HILTON (*William*¹), mariner, came when a child with his mother from London to Plymouth in the "Anne" in 1623, and "in a litle tyme following" settled with his father and Edward Hilton on the Piscataqua River. He removed afterward to Newbury, where he had several grants of land, but these grants are scattered through the Town Records, generally without dates, and in utter disregard of chronological order. He was defendant in a suit brought by Thomas Tuck, at a Court held at Salem on the last day of 4th mo. 1640. Dec. 29, 1649, he sold

† The custom of giving two sons the same Christian name was not uncommon in England at this period. There are instances where three brothers bore the same name. In one of the latter cases, cited by Col. Joseph L. Chester in a letter to the writer, they are designated in one document as "John the elder, John the younger, and John the middle."

John Hilton, of Dover, was, I think, a son of William¹ by his first wife. He was taxed at Dover as early as 1648, and had grants of land there. By deed dated 9 June, 1721 (Rockingham Deeds, Lib. 12, fol. 161), Ann Hilton, widow of William² Hilton, Benjamin Hilton, Samuel Moore and Hannah Hilton, alias Cole, all of York, and Malachi Edwards and Joseph D. y., both of Wells in the county of York, convey to Capt. Thomas Millet ofyster River, six undivided seventh parts of two grants of land made to John Hilton deceased, at a town meeting held at Dover, 4: 10 mo. 1655. And William³ Hilton of Marblehead, mariner, conveys to said Millet the other undivided seventh, by deed dated 5 Sept. 1721, recorded as aforesaid, Lib. 12, fol. 222.

Magdalen, wife of James Wiggin of York, was probably a daughter of William¹ Hilton. At all events, she was a daughter of Frances his wife, possibly by a former husband. She was married to Wiggin prior to 1657.

There was a Mannering or Manning Hilton in York as early as 1667. Administration on his estate was granted 4 July, 1671, to Thomas Moulton, his father-in-law.

The Town Records of York record the birth, 24 Sept. 1691, of a child of Nath^l Adams, by his wife whose maiden name was "Magdalen" Hilton. To this record the Hon. Nathaniel G. Marshall, the late Town Clerk, added that she was the daughter of Manwared and Mary Hilton. She afterward m. Elias Weare, and again John Webber.

Manfred or Manwell Hilton of York, bachelor, was defendant in suits brought by Joseph Hammond et al., at Court of Common Pleas, held at York 3 July and 2 Oct. 1795, and 2 July, 1796.

Administration on the estate of Robert Hilton of Wells, "who is apprehended to be deceased," was granted to Mr. Samuel Wheewright and Francis Littlefield, 29 Sept. 1647. Robert Hilton of Wells, weaver, conveyed land to Jonathan Littlefield of Wells, by deed dated 13 Nov. 1694, recorded with York Deeds, Lib. 13, fol. 275.

A William Hilton, who was, I think, a son of Edward Hilton, Sen., of Exeter, was of Kittery in 1690, in which year he was one of the grand jury. He was constable in 1691, and held a grant of land in Kittery, 17 July, 1691, which was laid out 29 Feb. 1695, "in 7th great Cove below y^e 10th 12 rock." He was presented by the grand jury to a court held at York, 7 July, 1699, as follows: "Wile P^{sent} William Hilton Constable of Kittery for tearing of a special warrant, sent by the secretary from Boston to Kittery, for sending a Deputy to the Generall Court."

John Symmons of Kittery, planter, by deed dated 18: 2 mo. 1667, recorded with York Deeds, Lib. 2, fol. 83, conveys to his son-in-law William Hilton, house and land in Kittery "as a dowry with my daughter Rebecke h^{is} now wife unto the s^d William." In the presence of Fran: Chimpemnowe, H^{is} ne: Greenlund, Edw: Hilton. He was of Exeter shortly after, and died there about 1659, leaving a widow. Administration on his estate was granted, 9 April, 1694, to Richard Hilton, his eldest son. He is styled Capt. William Hilton in various instruments. Names of such of his children as are known to me were:

- i. Richard. ii. John. iii. William.

James, his Indian, to George Carr, in exchange for quarter of a vessel.* "W^m Hilton, Newb." took the oath of freeman, May 18, 1653. His children, born in Newbury, were :

- i. SARAH, b. June, 1641.
- ii. CHARLES, b. July, 1643.
- iii. ANNE, b. Feb. 12, 1648.
- iv. ELIZABETH, b. Nov. 6, 1650; m. in Charlestown. Dec. 22, 1673, Timothy Cutler.
- v. WILLIAM, b. June 28, 1653.

He removed shortly after to Charlestown, bought house and land there of Ralph Mousall, Sept. 29, 1655,† and there m. (2) Mehitable, daughter of Increase Nowell, 16 : 7th mo. 1659.

His petition to the General Court in 1660 for confirmation of a grant of land made to his father and himself in 1626 by Tahanto, Indian Sagamore of Pennacook is in the Suffolk Court Files.‡ The answer of the General Court to this petition is to be found in the Mass. Col. Records, iv. (Pt. 1) 430.§

In the British Museum there is a map entitled "Discovery made by William Hilton of Charles towne In New England Marriner from Cape Hatterask Lat : 35 : 30' to y^e west of Cape Roman in Lat : 32.30' In y^e yeare 1662 And layd Down in the forme as you see by Nicholas Shapley of the town aforesaid November 1662."¶

He was commander of the ship "Adventure" in 1663, and his "Relation of a Discovery lately made on the Coast of Florida"¶ in that year, was printed in London in 1664. He sailed from Spil Bay, Barbadoes, Aug. 10, 1663, and the expedition was "set fo by several Gentlemen and Merchants of the Island of Barbadoe In this voyage the Carolina coast was explored and names were gi to various localities. One of the rivers was called Hilton's Riv Hilton Head, which was occupied by the Federal troops during Civil War, may have taken its name from this navigator.

In 1671 he was commander of the "Amity," and he brought s eral passengers in that year from the Island of Barbadoes to Boston.

He was admitted a member of the church in Charlestown by a let of dismission from the church in Newbury, Aug. 14, 1670, and d in Charlestown, 7 : 7th mo. 1675. Administration on his estate : granted 14 : 11th mo. 1675, to his widow Mehitable, who m. L con John Cutler, 29 : 8th mo. 1684. His children, by his sec wife, all born in Charlestown, were :

Beside the children above named, he had others, for Mehitable Cutler, then widow of Lieut. John Cutler, in her will, dated Dec. 8, 1709, probated Oct. 22, 1711, makes her two sons, John and Richard Hilton, residuary legatees and executors, on condition that they maintain their brother Samuel Hilton. Mary Hilton, who married William Marshall, in Charlestown, 2: 8th mo. 1666, was another daughter of William Hilton.†

3. WILLIAM² HILTON (William¹), of York, mariner, was the son of the William first above named, as appears from the following deposition:

"The Deposition of Major John Davess aged 70 years, or y^eabouts, & Cap^t Charles F[rost] aged 52 years or thereabouts, these Deponents respectively testify, & Say y^e Willia[m] Hilton now resident in yorke, in the province of Mayne, was Commonly known, & [repu]ted, to bee y^e sonn of William Hilton deceased, & formerly lived in Yorke abo[ve]] on y^e Tract of Land, y^t lyeth on the South, or South West side of y^e River [] yorke over against the fishing flakes, & next the Ferry, & further Sayth no[t]

He had a grant of land from the town, Aug. 25, 1679, and another, which bears no date, "upon the neck of Land on the South Side of York River, between Arthur Bales Land, & major Shapleighs, and James Wiggens & William mores Land, & the Land that was formerly m^r William Hiltons, provided it be free from any mans propriety or former grant."§ He was one of the forty-six men who took the oath of allegiance to the King, March 22, 1689. Another grant of land was made to him, March 18, 1695-6. He died between March, 1699, and June, 1700, leaving a widow Ann and children:

† Thomas Seers and Mary Hilton, alias Downer, were m. in Newbury, 11 Dec. 1661. Jonathan Woodman and Hanna Hilton were m. in Newbury, July 2, 1668. Sara Hilton was one of the witnesses to a deed from William Sawyer to Thomas Seares, of land in Newbury, dated March 21, 1648. (Town Records, I. p. 37.) John Hilton seems to have been taxed in Newbury 1662 (Town Records, I. p. 103), unless there is an error in the record.

4. WILLIAM³ HILTON (William,² *William*¹), b. about 1678, probably in York; m. in Marblehead, June 2, 1699, Margaret Stilson, daughter of James and Margaret Stilson.* He had a grant of thirty acres of land in York, Feb. 17, 1702-3, which, with ten acres more, formerly granted to his father (Aug. 25, 1679), were laid out to him, Feb. 24, 1702-3. He had another grant of thirty acres at the head of Bradbote, Broadbote, or Braveboat, Harbor, March 17, 1702-3, laid out to him, March 20, 1702-3. His pursuit and recovery of a sloop stolen out of the harbor of York, Nov. 8, 1711, by a Frenchman and three Indians, and the proceedings relating thereto, may be found in the Council Records. He is there styled Ensign William Hilton of York.† He conveyed to Joseph Hoult, by deed dated June 4, 1711, recorded with York Deeds, Lib. 7, fol. 196, the land last granted him by the Town. In this deed he styles himself of York, fisherman.

* John Brown, son of Richard Brown, of Barton Regis, co. Gloucester, England, m. Margaret, dau. of Francis Hayward, of Bristol, England, and settled at Pemaquid, at the head of New Harbor, in what is now the town of Bristol in the County of Lincoln, Maine. By deed dated July 15, 1625, Somerset, or Samoset, and Unnongot, Indian Sagamores, conveyed to him a tract of land embracing a large part of the present County of Lincoln and including Muscongus Island. He had a son John and daughters: Margaret, who m. Alexander, or Sander Gould; Elizabeth, who m. Richard Peirce, son of John Peirce; and Emman, who m. Nicholas Deming.

Alexander and Margaret Gould had three daughters, one of whom, Margaret, b. in New Harbor about 1659, m. (1) James Stilson, by whom she had children: Margaret Stilson, above named, b. about 1679; James Stilson; a daughter whose name is not known, and perhaps others. [The records of the First Church of Marblehead, Mass., show the admission of Margaret Stilson, April 18, 1686. May 2, 1696, Margaret Stilson was baptized, and, May 16, 1686, Margaret, James, Mary and John, children of Margaret Stilson, were baptized. Margaret Stilson, innuit, was one of "the children of the Church, who being grown up did personally own the Covenant of their Parents, & by their owne act entered themselves in this society," July 26, 1694, "being of age so to doe."]

About the year 1656, 1657 or 1658, James Stilson, the father, while crossing the water at Muscongus in a canoe, was fired upon and killed by the Indians, who took his youngest daughter, a sucking baby, from her mother's breast, burned it in the fire and carried the mother and the other two children captives to Canada. In Mass. Archives, xxxviii. A. 2, in a list of "Nims of English Captives Redeemed from Quibek by Mrs. Cary in 1677 (95)," is that of "Mrs. Mart Stilson Pemaquid." In the following list of "Nims of the Remaining Still in hands of the french at Canada," are those of "Jams Stilson [sic] her Pemaquid" and "Mary: [sic] Stilson 2011 Pemaquid." Mary is undoubtedly a mistake for Margaret. These lists were printed in the N. E. Hist. and Gen. Register, vi. p. 87, the name of the boy being misprinted Stilson. After her release from captivity, Margaret Stilson, the mother, m. (2), in Marblehead, March 50, 1696, Thomas Pittman, who was admitted a member of the church in Marblehead, Feb. 4 or 6, 1686, and who died, 4 mo, 1736, age 194. She died 11 mo, 1750, age 132.

James Stilson, the son, and his sister Margaret were afterward ransomed. He removed to Newerastle and Portsmouth, N. H., and she m. June 2, 1699, William Hilton, as above set forth. The depositions hereinafter referred to, with characteristic innocence, state that she remained six years in captivity after the release of her mother, and twelve years in all.

† Mass. Council Records, iv. 469, 510. N. E. Hist. and Gen. Register, xxxvi. 2, 3, 24. Suffolk Court Files, lxxxv., 1-3.

He already had a dwelling-house in Manchester, Mass., at Black Cove, in that part of the town called Newport, when he bought land there of Philip Nichols, Nov. 22, 1709 (Essex Deeds, Lib. 23, fol. 238). He bought other land adjoining, of John Seward, Sept. 30, 1714 (Essex Deeds, Lib. 27, fol. 63). In these deeds he is styled of Manchester, fisherman and coaster.

He had a dwelling-house at Muscongus, when he bought lands there of Richard Peirce, by deed dated Feb. 1, 1719-20 (Essex Deeds, Lib. 39, fol. 70.) But little reliance can be placed on the recitals in the numerous deeds in which he appears as grantor or grantee, for in these he is styled sometimes of York, and sometimes of Manchester, Marblehead and Muscongus, his occupation being that of mariner, coaster and fisherman. He evidently occupied lands at Muscongus, which he held in the right of his wife Margaret, and lands which he himself bought of Caesar Moxis and Gustin. Indian Sagamores (by deeds dated June 5, 1718, and Oct. 25, 1719, Essex Deeds, Lib. 39, fols. 87, 88), but whether he was an actual resident, or only lived there during the fishing season in each year, is a matter of some doubt. He seems to have been extensively engaged in the fisheries and coasting trade at Muscongus, making great improvements, and having a large stock of cattle.

At a town meeting in Manchester, Dec. 1, 1715, he was made one of a committee to procure a minister to preach the gospel, and March 12, 1715-16, was chosen one of the selectmen of Manchester. His name appears on the tax list of Manchester for the years 1717 and 1718, and in the former year he was one of the tything-men, and in the latter, one of the "Chowards and feld Drivers." His wife was admitted a member of the church in Manchester, May 26, 1717. June 11, 1719, the town laid out a highway from Black Cove, near Hilton's swamp and garden. In the claim entered by Margaret Hilton, Dec. 1, 1720, in the Book of Eastern Claims in the Secretary's office, Boston, she styles herself the wife of William Hilton now living at Muscongus. But if he had any intention of permanently settling there, the outbreak of hostilities with the Indians compelled him to change his purpose. In the journal of the Rev. Joseph Baxter, missionary to the Eastern Indians, is the following:

"The next Day which was Saturday, Aug: 12 [1721], we had a good wind, and towards night we arrived at Casco-Bay, where we met with M^r Hilton, of Muscongus in a small vessel with his cattle and Hogs on board, removing to y^e westward, who informed us y^t all the People were gone from Muscongus upon y^e rumours they had heard about the Indians."*

He took part in several expeditions against the Eastern Indians. Lt. Gov. Dummer in a letter to Col. Thomas Westbrook acknowledges the receipt of a letter from Col. Westbrook dated Hampton, Jan. 22, 1722-3 "inclosing Lieu^t Hilton's Journal." Col. Westbrook in a letter to Lt. Gov. Dummer dated St. Georges, March 23, 1722-3, says: "Lieut Hilton has been ill all this March and is now grown So weak that I am obliged to give him a furlow home, and at his request Given y^e Charge of his men to Lieut John March."* He died June 21, 1723, and administration on his estate was granted to his widow Margaret, the date of his death being set forth in the inventory. At meetings of the Council, July 2 and Sept. 21, 1723, it was advised and consented that there should be paid "To the Officers & Soldiers in the Muster Roll of William Hilton Lieut. deceased," and "To the Heirs, Executors or Administrators of Lieut. W^m. Hilton dec^d. and y^e Comp^a. in His Majestys Service Eastward late under his Com^d" £. 290: 3: 8 and £. 647: 9, to discharge the Muster Roll.†

He was buried in the old burial ground in Manchester, and his gravestone bears this inscription:‡

5. BENJAMIN³ HILTON (William,² William¹) of York, had grant of land there, March 23, 1712-13. By his wife Elizabeth, daughter of Joseph Crocket, of Kittery, he had children, all born in York:

- i. JOSHUA, b. April 12, 1714.
- ii. ELIZABETH, b. Oct. 5, 1717.

6. STILSON⁴ HILTON (William,³ William,² William¹). According to the Marblehead records, Stephen Hilton and Hannah Severy were m. Feb. 7, 1721. This is undoubtedly a mistake for Stilson Hilton, who had a wife Hannah. Stilson and Hannah Hilton became members of the first church in Marblehead, July 14, 1723. She was admitted to full communion with the church in Manchester, Mass., March 26, 1738. He died about 1741. His widow married in Manchester, Jan. 7, 1762, Richard Day. Children of Stilson and Hannah were:

12. i. STILSON, bapt. in Marblehead, July 4, 1725.
- ii. HANNAH, bapt. in Marblehead, March 24, 1727-8.

7. JOSHUA⁴ HILTON (William,³ William,² William¹). m. in Manchester, Mass., May 1, 1732, Miriam Haskell. Children, both born in Manchester, were:

- i. WILLIAM, b. April 14, 1733.
- ii. JOHN, b. Dec. 29, 1734.

His name is found as Joshua Hilton of Sheepscott, Maine, among the grantors, in a deed from Stilson Hilton et al. to Elizabeth Day, widow, dated July 1, 1765 (Essex Deeds, Lib. 121, fol. 159), but the deed does not bear his signature.

8. WILLIAM⁴ HILTON (William,² William,² William¹), m. in Manchester, Mass., Dec. 1, 1731, Mary Lee. Names of such of their children as were born in Manchester, were:

- i. MARY, b. Aug. 26, bapt. 27, 1732.
- ii. WILLIAM, b. Dec. 29, 1734, bapt. Jan. 5, 1734-5.
- iii. JAMES, b. June 27, bapt. July 10, 1737.
- iv. RICHARD, b. Sept. 1 [?], bapt. Oct. 7, 1739.
- v. ANNA, b. Dec. 12, bapt. 13, 1741.

He removed, probably after the fall of Louisbourg, with his wife and children, to Muscongus, and settled at Broad Cove,* on lands belonging to his parents.† There he lived until the summer of 1758, when, in going by water from Round Pond towards Broad Cove, with three of his sons, William, Richard and John, the Indians fired upon them, killed and scalped William the son, mortally wounded the father, and slightly wounded Richard. John, said to have been then a lad of about seventeen years, returned the fire and drove the Indians back, so that the survivors had time to make good their retreat to Round Pond, where William,⁴ the father, was buried.

From the depositions and other papers in support of the claim of the Hilton heirs, below referred to, it appears that the children, born after he left Manchester, were as follows:

- vi. JOHN (whose only daughter m. Thomas Hilton).

* N. E. Hist. and Gen. Register, xlvii. 120.

† The deed from the Sagamores Samoset and Unnongoit to John Brown, dated July 15, 1625, is said to be the first deed of conveyance of American soil. It was recorded, Dec. 25, 1720, at the request of James Stillson and his sister Margaret Hilton, in a Book of Records of Eastern Lands. This book was destroyed by fire when the Town House in Boston was burned, Dec. 9, 1747. Two attested copies of the deed, however, have been found, one of them recorded with York Deeds, Lib. 21, fol. 116, and the other with Lincoln Deeds, Lib. 74, fol. 6. This deed is printed in Johnson's Hist. of Bristol and Bremen and Pemaquid. A tract of land eight miles square, being part of the land described in this deed, was conveyed by Brown, by deed dated Aug. 8, 1639 (attested copies of which are recorded with Lincoln Deeds, Lib. 74, fol. 7, and York Deeds, Lib. 21, fol. 116), to his daughter Margaret Gould, and her husband Alexander Gould, and to the heirs of her body. Their daughter Margaret, then wife of Thomas Pitman, by deed dated Dec. 27, 1729 (York Deeds, Lib. 15, fol. 235), conveyed the same to her son James Stillson and her daughter Margaret, then wife of William³ Hilton. It was this land and that which he bought of Cass Moxis and Gustin, Indian Sagamores, from which William⁴ Hilton was driven by the Indians in 1721. During his life time, William⁴ Hilton seems to have held these lands against all comers, but after his death, and the end of the war, particularly in the years 1761, 1762 and 1763, settlers crowded in from every side, some claiming title under heirs of Brown, others with no color or pretence, but by simple force, and gradually, piece by piece, dispossessed the legal owners and reduced them to a very small part of their ancestral estate. The heirs of William³ and Margaret Hilton made several efforts to recover the land, of which they had thus been dis seized, both before, and immediately after, the Revolutionary war, but the troubles of the times prevented anything from being done. The last attempt was made before the Commissioners appointed by the Governor of Massachusetts, to hear and determine the rights and titles of the non-resident claimants to lands within the County of Lincoln, in opposition to the rights, titles and claims of the Commonwealth and those of the resident settlers thereupon. The Commissioners reported, Jan. 26, 1813, adversely to the claimants. Copies of the depositions of Richard Hilton, Margaret Pitman, Hannah Tewksbury, Richard Peirce, Elizabeth Crafts, Samuel Allen, Aaron Lee and others, the petition of the Hilton heirs, statement of case and other papers used by the hearers before the Commissioners, were some of them bought at an auction sale in Boston, about forty years ago, by Charles H. Morse, Esq., of Cambridge, Mass., afterward of Washington, D. C., from whom they passed into the possession of the Maine Historical Society, and some were found among the papers of the late Capt. Amos Hilton. A complete statement of the claims of land may be found in Johnson's Hist. of Bristol and Bremen and Pemaquid.

From the same source, it appears that Mary⁵, above named, the eldest daughter, married Matchlove, and died without issue; that William,⁵ who was killed as above described, left one child, who was drowned when very young; that Anna⁵ married John McCurda; and that James⁵ had a wife Sarah and children Mary (m. Jonathan Merritt), William, John, James, Jenny (m. Jonathan Perslee), Peggy (m. Abram Hilton), Joshua, Joseph, Elizabeth (m. Thomas McCurda), Sally (m. Israel Woodbury), Susannah (m. Joseph Linscott), Lydia (m. Benjamin Hilton), and Nancy (m. John Lynn). But it would exceed the limits prescribed for this article to follow this branch of the family further.
